

We Know SAFE HANDS

Oven / Puppet Mitts

|                                                                                   | Product NameItem No.                                                 | MaximumHeatResistance                                                                    | Safe for Use With                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Options                         | Material        | Features                                                                                                                                                |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------|-----------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|   | PUPPET MITT COOL TOUCH™ FLAMEKT0112K, KT0115K,KT0118K, KT0124K   | 535°/30sec  |     | 12", 15", 18",24"Maroon | Nomex & Kevlar® | Intermittent flame protection, reinforced WebGuard™ fabric between thumb/forefinger, hanging loop & magnet, puppet style/ambidextrous, machine washable |
|   | COOL TOUCH™ FLAME CONVENTIONAL MITTKT0212, KT0215,KT0218, KT0224 | 535°/30sec  |     | 12", 15", 18",24"Maroon | Nomex & Kevlar® | Intermittent flame protection, reinforced WebGuard™ fabric between thumb/forefinger, hanging loop & magnet, puppet style/ambidextrous, machine washable |
|  | FLEXGUARD OVEN MITTFX15, FX17                                        | 685°/30sec |     | 15", 17"Black               | Silicone        | Seamless construction, exceptional grip, integrated magnet, easy clean                                                                                  |

Hot or Cold Mitts

|                                                                                    | Product NameItem No.                                        | MaximumHeatResistance                                                                           | Safe for Use With                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Options                 | Material | Features                                                                                                                 |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------|----------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | HEAT/FREEZER SILICONE OVEN MITT801SG13, 801SG15,801SG17 | 0°-400°15sec |    | 13", 15", 17"Silver | Silicone | Great choice for basic needs, non-stick coating, built-in hanging loop, easy clean, ambidextrous                         |
|  | SILICONE OVEN MITTS801SG17DZ                                | 0°-400°15sec |    | 17"Silver           | Silicone | Multi-purpose glove protects from both heat and cold, non-stick coating, built-in hanging loop, easy clean, ambidextrous |

Cold Gloves

|                                                                                    | Product NameItem No.    | MaximumHeatResistance                                                                   | Safe for Use With                                                                   | Options            | Material                                  | Features                                                                                                                               |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|-------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | Frozen Food GloveFGI-OR | 0°/60sec |  | One SizeOrange | Insulated PVC,Cotton JerseyLining | Excellent handling of frozen food boxes, dry ice, knit cuff for easy on/off, strong surface grip for handling frozen/slippery surfaces |